

Victor Salinas, CEO Aiontech

Morning Session: Unconference Startup Visa Program

I have been working in the financial industry for more than 20 years, designing and developing solutions for the financial industry in the payments, Money Market and Backoffice processes

My objective is to grow, professionally and personally, to develop competitive technologies at a global and innovative level.

As a CEO of AIONTECH, I have been the opportunity to lead the 30 people team to grow and expand the Company into new markets worldwide in countries like: Mexico, Canada and Colombia

I´m an active Blockchain member, follower and entrepreneur; participating in events and courses to implement solutions to be integrated with this technology.
